HINDLIP (HYNDLIPP)

10th cent. Hindehlep; 12th cent. Hundeslep; 13th cent. Hindelupe; 16th cent. Henlipp

PARISH

The Parish of Hindlip covers an area of 1,380 acres lies to the southeast of Droitwich.

Hindlip Hall the seat of Lord Hindlip, is on the site of the old house, which was entirely rebuilt in the first half of the 19th century, and stands about three quarters of a mile to the north of the Worcester to Birmingham Canal.

The Church of St James the Great of 15th century origins, is in Hindlip park.

Hindlip as an ancient village has almost disappeared. Remaining is Cummins Farm a half timbered 16th century building to the south of Hindlip. Offerton Farm (Alhfretone, Auferton) south east of Hindlip. Seem to have formed part of the Hindlip Estate.

To the north of Offerton on the road which runs east through the Parish to Oddingley are the two Upper and Lower Smite farms. They were included in Hindlip Parish in 1880. Smite Hill was transferred to Hindlip from Claines Parish at the same date.
